What is Grammar?

Grammar is a system of rules that explains how words are formed, arranged and used to create meaningful sentences.

It helps us understand:

- How words function in a sentence
- How sentences are constructed
- How ideas are connected
- How meaning changes through word order and tense
- How to communicate accurately

Importance of Grammar

Good grammar helps a person:

- Express thoughts clearly
- Avoid confusion and ambiguity
- Write correctly and effectively
- Speak with confidence
- Understand written and spoken language
- Communicate ideas in a structured manner

Example :-

She go to college every day.

She goes to college every day.

The second sentence follows the correct grammatical structure.

PARTS OF SPEECH

The Eight Parts of Speech

Parts of speech are categories of words based on the work they perform in a sentence.

Part of Speech	Meaning	Example
Noun	Names a person, place, thing or idea	student, Mumbai
Pronoun	Replaces a noun	he, she, they
Verb	Shows action or state	run, write, is
Adjective	Describes a noun/pronoun	beautiful, intelligent
Adverb	Modifies a verb, adjective or adverb	quickly, very
Preposition	Shows relationship between words	in, on, under
Conjunction	Joins words or clauses	and, but, because
Interjection	Expresses sudden emotion	Oh!, Wow!

Example Sentence

The intelligent student answered the question quickly.

- student → Noun
- intelligent → Adjective
- answered → Verb
- quickly → Adverb
- the → Article

SENTENCE AND ITS STRUCTURE

What is a Sentence?

A sentence is a group of words that expresses a complete thought or idea.

A basic sentence generally contains:

Subject + Verb + Object

Example:

The student completed the assignment.

- Subject: The student
- Verb: completed
- Object: the assignment

Common Sentence Patterns

1. Subject + Verb

Birds fly.

2. Subject + Verb + Object

She reads books.

3. Subject + Verb + Complement

He is intelligent.

4. Subject + Verb + Indirect Object + Direct Object

She gave me a book.

Why Sentence Structure Matters

Correct sentence structure:

- Makes ideas easier to understand
- Improves readability
- Prevents ambiguity
- Makes communication more effective

TYPES OF SENTENCES

Sentences can be classified according to their purpose and structure.

A. According to Purpose

1. Declarative Sentence

Makes a statement.

The examination starts tomorrow.

2. Interrogative Sentence

Asks a question.

When does the examination start?

3. Imperative Sentence

Expresses a command, request or instruction.

Please submit the assignment.

4. Exclamatory Sentence

Expresses strong emotion.

What a wonderful performance!

B. According to Structure

Simple: One independent clause.

She studies regularly.

Compound: Two independent clauses joined by a conjunction.

She studies regularly, and she scores well.

Complex: One independent clause + one or more dependent clauses.

Form	Present	Past	Future
Continuous	I am writing	I was writing	I will be writing
Perfect	I have written	I had written	I will have written
Perfect Continuous	I have been writing	I had been writing	I will have been writing

Key Point:

Tenses help us communicate when an action happens and whether it is complete, continuing or expected.

SUBJECT – VERB AGREEMENT

Definition

Subject–verb agreement means that the verb must agree with its subject in number and person.

Singular Subject → Singular Verb

She plays tennis.

The boy runs fast.

Plural Subject → Plural Verb

They play tennis.

The boys run fast.

Common Errors

She go to school.

She goes to school.

They goes to school.

They go to school.

Important Rule

Words such as each, every, everyone, everybody, someone and nobody generally take singular verbs.

Everyone is ready.

Each student has a book.

Correct subject–verb agreement makes sentences grammatically accurate and easier to understand.

ACTIVE AND PASSIVE VOICE

Active and passive voice

Active : Ram killed Ravan

Passive : Ravan was killed by Ram.

Active Voice

In active voice, the subject performs the action.

The teacher explained the lesson.

Structure:

Subject → Verb → Object

Passive Voice

In passive voice, the subject receives the action.

The lesson was explained by the teacher.

Structure:

Object → Helping Verb + Past Participle → by + Subject

More Examples

Active Voice

Passive Voice

Active Voice

Passive Voice

She wrote a letter. A letter was written by her.

They completed the work. The work was completed by them.

He opened the door. The door was opened by him.

When is Passive Voice Used?

Passive voice is useful when:

- The action is more important than the doer.
- The doer is unknown.
- The writing needs an objective or formal tone.

ARTICLES AND PREPOSITIONS

Articles

Articles are words used before nouns.

There are three articles:

A

Used before a singular countable noun beginning with a consonant sound.

a book

a university

AN

Used before a singular countable noun beginning with a vowel sound.

an apple

THE

Used when referring to a specific person or thing.

The book on the table is mine.

Prepositions

Prepositions show the relationship between a noun/pronoun and another word.

Common Prepositions:

in, on, at, under, over, between, beside, behind, through, into, from, with

Examples:

The book is on the table.

She lives in Mumbai.

The meeting starts at 10 a.m.

The cat is under the chair.

CONJUNCTIONS AND MODAL VERBS

Conjunctions

Conjunctions connect words, phrases or clauses.

Common Conjunctions:

and, but, or, because, although, if, while, so

Examples:

I studied hard because I had an examination.

She is intelligent and hardworking.

He wanted to go, but he was busy.

Types of Conjunctions

Coordinating: and, but, or, so

Subordinating: because, although, if, when

Correlative: either...or, neither...nor, both...and

Modal Verbs

Modal verbs express ability, possibility, permission, necessity or obligation.

Can → ability

She can swim.

May → possibility/permission

It may rain today.

Must → necessity

You must follow the rules.

Should → advice

You should revise regularly.

Could → possibility/polite request

Could you help me?

DIRECT & INDIRECT SPEECH

Direct Speech

Direct speech gives the exact words spoken by a person.

Rahul said, “I am busy.”

Quotation marks are used to indicate the speaker's exact words.

Indirect Speech

Indirect speech reports what someone said without repeating their exact words.

Rahul said that he was busy.

Common Changes

Direct Speech Indirect Speech

today	that day
tomorrow	the next day
yesterday	the previous day
now	then
this	that these	those

Example

Direct:

She said, "I have completed my work."

Indirect:

She said that she had completed her work.

Why is it Important?

Reported speech is commonly used when:

- Retelling conversations
- Writing reports
- Reporting statements
- Summarising discussions
